

On April 25, 7 pm, in the Martin Polin Community Room of the Atascadero Public Library, Gordon Fuglie will lecture on the rise of Christian nationalism and its prominence in the Republican presidential campaign and conservative politics. The event is hosted by the Atascadero Democratic Club.

Upon announcing his presidential bid in 2015, Donald Trump courted conservative white evangelical Christians by promising to redress their social fears, cultural grievances, and use federal power to give them dominion over American life. In the 2016 election, more than 80% of white evangelical voters supported Trump.

THE PREMISE OF THE LECTURE IS THE FIRST LIE HE TOLD. HE SAYS THAT WE LIE ABOUT AMERICAN HISTORY AND THEN PROCEEDS TO LIE ABOUT TRUMP. FUGLIE CANNOT PRODUCE ONE IOTA OF EVIDENCE TO BACK UP THIS CLAIM AND TRUMP HIMSELF HAS TOLD THE MOST PROMINENT CHRISTIAN NATIONALISTS THAT HE IS NOT WITH THEM. THEY MIGHT BE IN HIS CABINET TRUE BUT ONLY TO IMPLEMENT HIS POLICIES. Also only half of Evangelicals are registered.

Time Magazine article - how horrible (lol)

“Christian nationalists want to define America as a Christian nation and they want the government to promote a specific cultural template as the official culture of the country. Some have advocated for an amendment to the Constitution to recognize America’s Christian heritage, others to reinstitute prayer in public schools. Some work to enshrine a Christian nationalist interpretation of American history in school curricula, including that America has a special relationship with God or has been “chosen” by him to carry out a special mission on earth. Others advocate for immigration restrictions specifically to prevent a change to American religious and ethnic demographics or a change to American culture. Some want to empower the government to take stronger action to circumscribe immoral behavior.”

What Ghastly Ideas, this is a huge threat to Democracy!!

In a 2021 essay for Newsweek, Vought claimed that Christian nationalism (which he put in quotation marks) “is actually a rather benign and useful description for those who believe in both preserving our country’s Judeo-Christian heritage and making public policy decisions that are best for this country.” Vought’s influence can be seen in the Heritage Foundation’s Project 2025. As Politico notes, this proposed blueprint for a second Trump term “says policies that support LGBTQ+ rights, subsidize “single-motherhood” and penalize marriage should be repealed because subjective notions of “gender identity” threaten “Americans’ fundamental liberties. It also proposes increasing surveillance of abortion and maternal mortality reporting in the states, compelling the Food and Drug Administration to revoke approval of “chemical abortion drugs” and protecting “religious and moral” objections for employers who decline contraception coverage for employees.”

The real threat to Democracy is VBM, Antifa, BLM and Radical Muslims. Note use of street art to propagandize. Where's Fuglie on that? Nowhere. Why does he not criticize Biden for seeking the pro Hamas Vote? All they want to do is establish Sharia wherever they are. But no criticism there.

The Nation.

THE FRONT BURNER / OCTOBER 30, 2023

Solidarity Between BLM and Palestine Has Deep Roots

Black liberationists have long found kinship with the Palestinian cause, seeing a common desire to live free of violence.

KALI HOLLOWAY

SHARE

BREAKING NEWS Dozens detained at UCLA parking garage following protests and violence over Gaza war

CALIFORNIA

Mace, green lasers, screeching soundtracks: Inside the UCLA encampment on a night of violence

A counterdemonstrator throws a water bottle at a pro-Palestinian encampment at UCLA early Wednesday. (Wally Skalij / Los Angeles Times)

Subscribers are Reading

CALIFORNIA

UCLA's top cop, accused of security failures, calls to step aside. He defends his actions.

ENTERTAINMENT & ARTS

UCLA faculty protest at Hamme gala, decrying treatment of pro-Palestinian students

BUSINESS

FOR SUBSCRIBERS

A tale of two downtowns in L.A.: languish, apartments thrive

WORLD & NATION

Three friends drove from California for a surfing trip. Then they discovered a shark.

CLIMATE & ENVIRONMENT

FOR SUBSCRIBERS

Joshua Tree's celebrity rattlesnake

Biden's Donors are Pro Hamas, Fuglie doesn't care. He refuse to disavow when asked. We have this on the recording, he cannot deny.

By SHIA KAPOIS
05/05/2024 07:00 AM EDT
Updated: 05/05/2024 08:25 PM EDT

President Joe Biden has been dogged for months by pro-Palestinian protesters calling him “Genocide Joe” — but some of the groups behind the demonstrations receive financial backing from philanthropists pushing hard for his reelection.

The donors include some of the biggest names in Democratic circles: Soros, Rockefeller and Pritzker, according to a POLITICO analysis.

Two of the organizers supporting the protests at Columbia University and on other campuses are Jewish Voice for Peace and IfNotNow. Both are supported by the Tides Foundation, which is seeded by Democratic megadonor George Soros and was previously supported by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. It in turn supports numerous small nonprofits that work for social change.

Soros declined to comment. The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, which has previously funded the Tides Foundation and other groups, said it no longer has active grants to Tides. It also does not support Jewish Voice for Peace or IfNotNow.

Another notable Democratic donor whose philanthropy has helped fund the protest movement is David Rockefeller Jr., who sits on the board of the Rockefeller Brothers Fund. In 2022, the fund gave $300,000 to the Tides Foundation; according to nonprofit tax forms, Tides has given nearly $500,000 over the past five years to Jewish Voice for Peace, which explicitly describes itself as anti-Zionist.

Several other groups involved in pro-Palestinian protests are backed by a foundation funded by Susan and Nick Pritzker, heir to the Hyatt Hotel empire — and supporters of Biden and numerous Democratic campaigns, including

POLITICO + Follow 213.4K Followers

Pro-Palestinian protesters are backed by a surprising source: Biden's biggest donors

Story by Shia Kapos • 1d • 6 min read

Fuglie Lies About Trump Statue

Not an Idol. It is pure sarcasm of Obama and satire. Trump has a boyish grin and sandals to represent his youthful energetic approach to politics.

Fuglie showed it from the side

Fuglie claimed it was an idol and

Trump was holding a sceptre like the Ancient Pharaohs. Completely False.

Fuglie never even quoted the

Sculptor to present the views of the person who created the statue.

Just one example of poor academic practices

Trump has a magic wand! The one Obama said he needed to restore manufacturing jobs.

The picture Fuglie showed vs the whole statue show that Fuglie clearly misrepresented and intentionally distorted it. He owes an apology

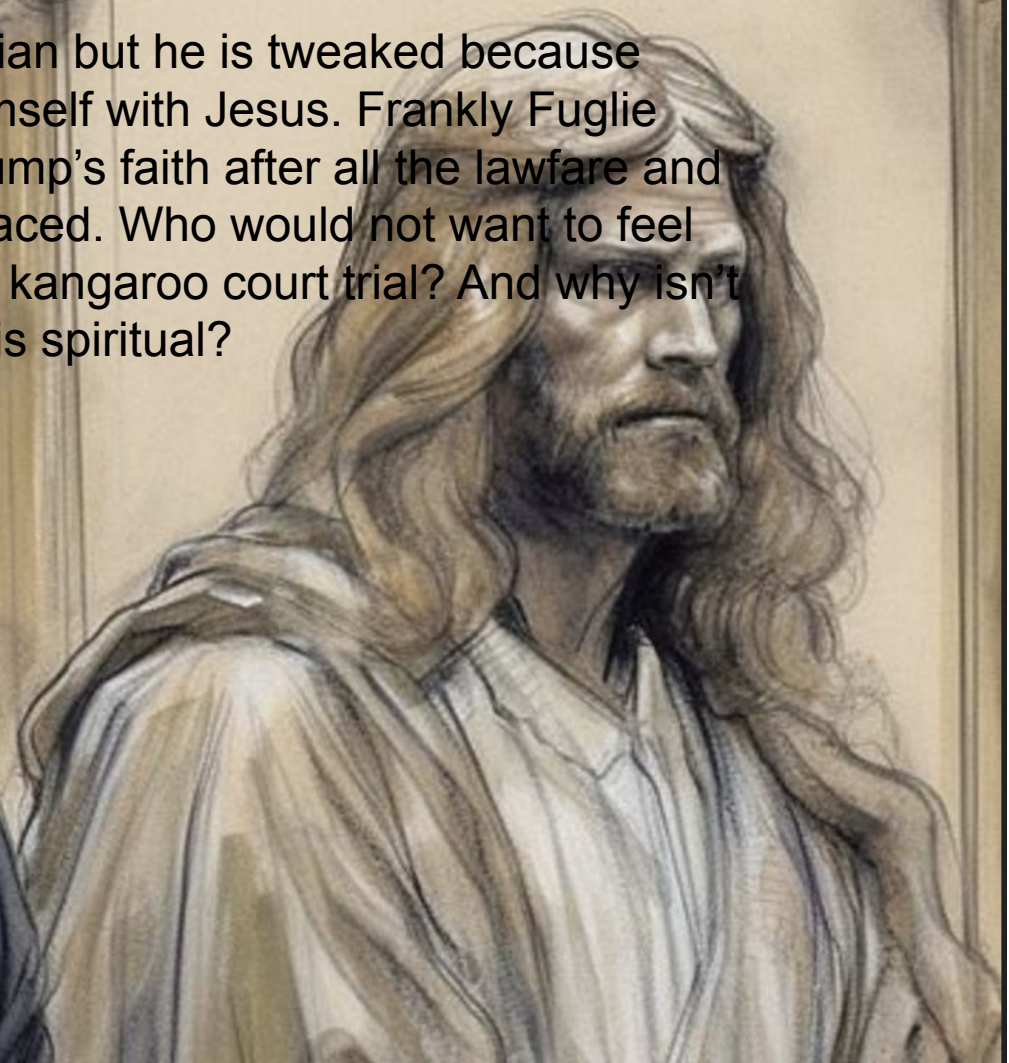

Manufacturing Jobs

In the last 30 months of President Obama's term, manufacturing employment grew by 185,000 or 1.5%. In President Trump's first 30 months, manufacturers added 499,000 jobs, expanding by 4.0%. In the same 30-month time span during the mature, post-recovery phase of the business cycle, some 314,000 more manufacturing jobs were added under Trump than under Obama, a 170% advantage.

<https://www.forbes.com/sites/chuckdevore/2019/07/10/in-trumps-first-30-months-manufacturing-up-by-314000-jobs-over-obama-what-states-are-hot/?sh=53fcab1e2677>

Fuglie is supposedly a Christian but he is tweaked because Trump shares a picture of himself with Jesus. Frankly Fuglie should be impressed with Trump's faith after all the lawfare and political persecution he has faced. Who would not want to feel the presence of the Lord at a kangaroo court trial? And why isn't Fuglie out washing feet if he is spiritual?

“Christian Nationalism” is a Trick!

This is a trick to divide the body of Christ. Many of our brothers and sisters have fallen for this propaganda that there are Christians out there promoting this doctrine and have taken upon themselves to denigrate their fellow Christians instead of attacking the source of lies. Frankly I do not see how a mature Christian believer can become a victim by this attempt by Satan to divide and conquer. I am way more disappointed with these enablers than Fuglie. I see this as more of a problem than anything else. Why are supposedly people of spiritual knowledge so easily deceived by the enemy of God? And so ready to throw their brothers and sisters in Christ under the bus?

Fuglie Not Happy When I...

Pointed out that the Women's Equality Mural Project in Atascadero is a Marxist attempt to overthrow democracy. Did not want to hear the whole subject about how Marxism was used to incite violent revolution in South America and how it connects to Atascadero. For an Art Historian from a Marxist perspective to claim he had no knowledge of this is just not believable.

<https://artincontext.org/socialist-realism/>

JUSTICE
FOR ALL INDIGENOUS WOMEN

JESSICA
SABOGAL

JCB POR UNA
PATRIA DIGNA
NACIONALIZAR YA!
52 ANIV. ☠️ ★

FRETE
ESTUDIANTIL
REVOLUCIONARIO

Women's Equality Mural Project

No religious or patriotic symbols of any kind. Used by the history teacher at Atascadero High to infuse his Marxist beliefs with history and proposed a mural project that I stopped in the tunnel connecting to ABC Church and St Williams and North County Christian School because the city could not determine who legally had the right to approve the project. This is the type of subversion and threat to democracy along with crooked voting machines that all Christians should be talking about and not backstabbing each other. Fuglie clearly did not want to hear this. And he calls himself a Christian but he throws Christians under the bus in a way not approved by the Founding Fathers or the bible. He is supposed to be washing feet. Just saying! Fuglie does not get #hegetsus.

Clarke Andros on His Women's Equality Mural Project

“It takes years for an Oak to grow to the size necessary to provide a lot of shade, years of existing with an inward focus,” Andros says of his inspiration. “The history that the town of Atascadero is built upon is one that lacks inclusivity; from its inception, it was a space that only a privileged demographic could find comfort in. That is, however, the history of the town, not it’s path forward.”

So we have subversive, Marxist revolutionary art projects in our own town and Fuglie thinks we are the threat to Democracy. Frankly, how biased can you get? And we are paying this guy to teach Marxist propaganda in the schools. Or was, I heard he had to go and I also heard he vandalized NCCS with a group of students after the Dobbs decision.

Fuglie says we pose a threat to Historical Christianity

That's a lie. We are the proponents of traditional Christian thinking. The dignity and worth of every person. The need to infuse every aspect of our lives including civic with biblical thinking. The fact the Jesus calls us as individuals and not government entities to perform works of charity, support the poor widows and orphans and visit the sick. Jesus never said to use government power to force people to do anything. Jesus was not a revolutionary, He was the King who reclaimed His kingdom from the superstitious, cultic and academically led disaster that Israel had denigrated to. Our focus is always to dedicate our efforts to the Glory of the Lord and his is to promote atheistic socialism and transgender ideology. Who is the bigger threat? Why is it that Christians who slam us for believing the truth don't condemn our critics for being in line with the father of lies? Fuglie even brought up himself that Satan is the father of lies and proceeded to lie about and condemn his brothers and sisters in the Lord.

Fuglie sounds a lot like Jim Wallis

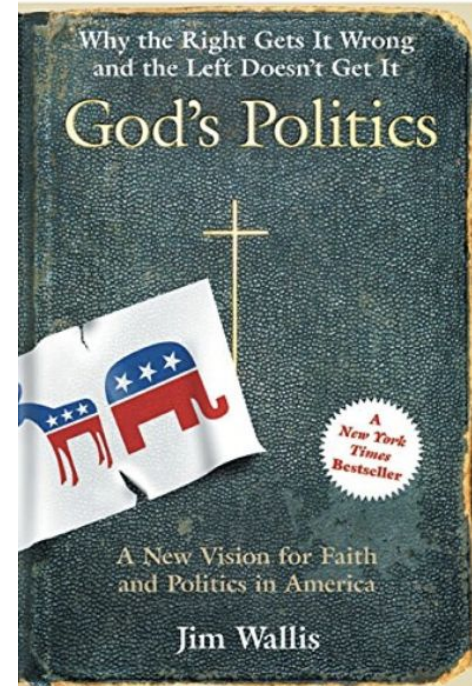

Jim Wallis is a marxist inspired

Christian. Can you believe that?

A lot of what Fuglie says sounds like
It came from these types of books.

Jim Wallis is founder of Sojourners, whatever that is.

Another Christian who should be washing feet instead of Slamming other disciples of Christ.

Quotes

John Adams

The general principles on which the fathers achieved independence were the general principles of Christianity. I will avow that I then believed, and now believe, that those general principles of Christianity are as eternal and immutable as the existence and attributes of God.

Without religion, this world would be something not fit to be mentioned in polite company: I mean hell.

The Christian religion is, above all the religions that ever prevailed or existed in ancient or modern times, the religion of wisdom, virtue, equity and humanity.

Suppose a nation in some distant region should take the Bible for their only law book and every member should regulate his conduct by the precepts there exhibited. . . . What a Eutopia - what a Paradise would this region be!

I have examined all religions, and the result is that the Bible is the best book in the world.

It's Lies about Christians that leads to violence against Churches, according to the logic of liberals themselves.

Hostility against churches in the United States appears to be on the rise, according to a recent Family Research Council report that identified 436 incidents against churches in 2023, more than double the amount reported by the group in 2022 and eight times the number identified in 2018.

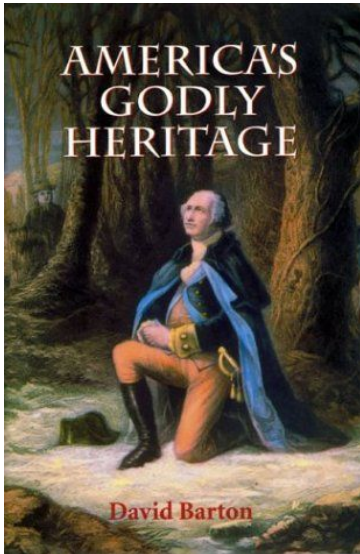

The conservative Christian advocacy organization released its latest "Hostility Against Churches" report this month, which FRC updated to include hostility incidents from the calendar year 2023.

The organization has collected data about acts of hostility against churches since 2018, identifying 915 such incidents over the past six years.

Hate speech from Tom Fulks, Gordon Fuglie and Dan Cook is Ok but three insignificant out of towners who are clearly here to cause issues are no good. Double standard. Bruce Gibson along with Dawn Legg-Ortiz and Jimmy Paulding were clearly virtue signaling and had no intention of cracking down on hate speech from the left. We all know that. We saw it coming and it gives Fuglie cover to spread his lies. So according to liberals using their own standard Gordon Fuglie is guilty of spreading violence. And again he thinks we are the problem.

Fuglie did not discuss or refute this kind of material

Founding Father Quotes from ChristianHeritageFellowship.com

Fuglie's approach was totally unacademic

Ad Hominem

Emotion

Frowning

Straw Man

No real quotes or analysis of the so-called movement

What is the New Apostolic Reformation?

Fuglie to my knowledge did not even name this group

From wikipedia and I believe this is accurate based on my knowledge of Bill Johnson

The New Apostolic Reformation, or NAR, is an unbiblical religious movement that emphasizes experience over Scripture, mysticism over doctrine, and modern-day “apostles” over the plain text of the Bible. Of particular distinction in the New Apostolic Reformation are the role and power of spiritual leaders and miracle-workers, the reception of “new” revelations from God, an over-emphasis on spiritual warfare, and a pursuit of cultural and political control in society. The seeking of signs and wonders in the NAR is always accompanied by blatantly false doctrine.

Facts about Christian Nationalism

There are no real known leaders

There are no real known followers

There is no real known movement other than a bunch of outliers with little influence

Therefore this is the greatest threat to democracy, not systematic fraud, communist subversion, Antifa or buying votes through forgiving debt etc

Just a Few of Gordon Fuglie lies

The Woman's Federation Trumpeter was named in the 50's, not after Trump

That Heather Moreno and the whole County Party are MAGA Christian Nationalists

That Jan 6th was an insurrection (omg) and that they were just a bunch of mentally ill people totally ignoring the facts and not producing one shred of evidence, just some polls that were obviously biased and absurd

I doubt he was ever a Reagan conservative or even understood that Reagan was trying to prevent a real danger of Communist domination of South America and totally ignored the fact that Communism has a strong foothold in SA and Communist China is very active in the region.

Fuglie Lies Continued

Already discussed his complete distortion of the Trump statue

“It’s not an idol,” said artist and former youth pastor Tommy Zegan, reported MediaITE. “I know the biblical definition of an idol. This is not an idol. This is a sculpture.”

The 200-pound fiberglass statue of the former president, titled Trump and his Magic Wand, was made in Rosarito, Mexico, and later painted in Tampa, Florida, Politico reported. The artist said the statue was then U-Hauled to Orlando, where it was on display for CPAC 2021. Zegan said that he’d sell it for $100,000.

The gilded Trump is dressed in red flip-flops, American flag shorts and a black suit coat over a white dress shirt and red tie. Trump, whose head, hands and legs are painted gold, holds the U.S. Constitution in his right hand and a star-capped wand in his left. The “magic wand” refers a comment made by former President Barack Obama in 2016, when he figuratively asked “what magic wand do you have” of Trump’s plan to bring lost manufacturing jobs back to America.

“The coat and tie is the fact that he’s a professional, he’s a businessman,” Zegan told CNN. “The red tie symbolizes he’s a Republican. The red white and blue is that he’s a patriot. The fact that he’s wearing thongs and shorts is that he’s at the age where he should be retired. He should be at the beach right now.”

Fuglie's Big Lie about our Nation

The claim that this is not a nation founded in Christianity. The Pilgrims came here for religious freedom and the type of Government dominated church in England. The colonies had laws with direct ties to the Bible. Any Ancient Near Eastern scholar can tell you that our civilization is biblically based and that the Mosaic code especially with the Kosher laws was the most advanced and humane system of rules, philosophy, guidelines and principles to ever be proclaimed. It surpassed by far any other system of law then and now.

Refuting Fuglie

Following the American Revolution and the birthing of the United States, the American Founders undertook the task of creating a new body of laws and a new civil government for the new nation. This agreed-upon set of laws became the United States' Constitution of 1787. Russell Kirk elaborates in his 1991 The Roots of American Order, on the meaning of a constitution: “The true constitution of any political state is not merely a piece of parchment but rather a body of fundamental laws and customs that join together the various regions and classes and interests of a country, in a political pattern that is just.”^[1] While the Declaration of Independence is an expression and agreement among Americans of the philosophical values and principles to which they adhere—the “who” and “why”—as a people and nation, the U. S. Constitution lays out a just, workable form of government and laws—the “how”—to practically order and govern the new nation according to its values and principles. The Constitution frames the United States government, provides for the country's national security and defense, upholds justice, and protects the civil and religious liberties of the people. The Constitution is an important founding document of the American people.

While the U. S. Constitution is a practical legal document, it is based on a consensus of long-held moral, philosophical, and political beliefs, principles, and customs recognized and practiced by the American people. Some important philosophical influences on the Constitution include the colonial and state constitutions, the Great Awakening, modern Enlightenment thinkers, and the Declaration of Independence. Notably, all of these particular influences were shaped by a God-oriented worldview based on and/or consistent with the Bible. This worldview was held by colonial and founding-era Americans as well as by the political philosophers they read. In fact, the Bible itself was also a very strong, direct influence on founding-era Americans who drafted and ratified the Constitution.

<https://americanheritage.org/the-bible-inspired-influences-on-the-u-s-constitution-and-u-s-bill-of-rights/>

Fuglie just ignored mainstream Christian Thinking

Fuglie's presentation was based on just one branch of Christianity that has very little influence over Evangelicals. And Fuglie is clearly a racist, bigoted person because he thinks this is a white supremacy movement. He totally left out that Catholics and Jews agree with the fact that is a nation based on biblical values. That also includes socially conservative Hispanic Catholics. The whole presentation was just an attempt to smear people and motivate the party to be active. It had nothing to do with an academic and scholarly presentation of the facts. And he knows that.